

10 Questions to Ask Your Wedding Band

Essential Questions to Ask Before Booking

1. Are you free on our date?

Contact us now and find out!
2. Are there testimonials from past brides available for me to see?

Our testimonials can be found here. The best source of unbiased information is your venue or wedding coordinator. Their reputation is on the line when they recommend a supplier, that's why we are very proud of our standing among them.
3. Can we see you live?

Of course! Check out our monthly showcase dates here to see us live.
4. Have you played at my reception venue before?

The answer is more than likely, yes! The Bentley Boys have been filling dance floors across Ireland's top venues for many years.
5. Do I get to choose my lead singer and configuration?

We have several lead singers who are all excellent, professional musicians, each with their own personality and style. We give you the freedom to choose which one suits your personal taste best. We offer brides different band sizes, from a 3 piece right through to a 12 piece, which can be made up of different combinations and configurations according to our clients' preferences. Of course we have the musicians to do this. Bentley Boys musicians play together all the time,
6. What happens if you fall ill/can't attend the wedding? Or a member of your band quits? Or the entire band splits up?!

It's been said a week is an eternity in politics. The same can be said about a month in showbiz, nevermind a year. With our group of talented musicians we can cope with any eventuality so that, no matter what happens, your performance will never be affected. With the Bentley Boys you are getting 100% peace of mind.
7. Do I get to choose the music the band plays?

Good lead singers pride themselves on knowing what songs to play and when. At the same time, it's your big day and the last thing we want to do is play anything you hate. Our advice is to give the lead singer plenty of room to decide what is right for that moment. But at the same time give us a good indication of the kind of music that you love and hate. A great way to do this is to look at our song list on the website.
8. Will you mind if the first dance song is prerecorded?

Some people prefer to have a recording played, since this is the "exact version" of their special song, particularly if they have practised a routine to it. However, in most cases we can play the song for you. If you prefer, talk to us about how to select a good song for this part of the evening. It is important to get it right!
9. How much do you cost? When do I need to decide?

Call or email info@bentleyboysband.ie for a quote for the exact size and configuration of the band that interests you. Our calendar fills up very quickly with available dates disappearing very fast.
10. Do you have public liability insurance?

Yes, of course. The majority of venues require suppliers at a wedding to have their own public liability insurance.
